RESOLUTION NO. 401

“WHEREAS, Bayawan City, envisioned to be the TOP FARM TOURISM DESTINATION of the PHILIPPINES by 2020, aims to provide a clean, healthy and environment-friendly atmosphere to encourage local and foreign visitors to come and observe the BAYAWANIHAN way of life, enhanced by its “Character First” policy program.

“WHEREAS, Bayawan City, with an estimated population of 123,000, also strives to become a premier city in the southern part of Negros Island that is able to adequately provide for the people’s needs to a safe and healthy community;

“WHEREAS, Bayawan City comprised of 28 barangays, seven (7) of which are urban and 21 rural barangays, has only one (1) primary hospital and health centers accessible only to the urban barangays while the medical needs of these rural barangays are not immediately addressed because of the distance from the City;

“WHEREAS, Local Government Unit - Bayawan City believes that in order to address the shortage of medical professionals to take care of the people’s health, there is a need to have more local medical doctors by granting a medical scholarship or post graduate study grant to qualified Bayawanon;

“WHEREAS, Bayawan City aspires to help more students pursue medical studies and eventually become homegrown medical doctors who will help the City become self-sufficient in terms of medical professionals, likewise alleviate the economic condition of the Bayawanon families by having more professionals, specifically doctors in the family;

“WHEREAS, Section 458 (5) xi of the Local Government Code of 1991 states that the Local Government can establish a scholarship program within its jurisdiction. However, since there is no medical school in the 3rd District, it is hereby requested that this noble ordinance would be allowed to enroll its scholars in other medical schools within the Visayas Region.

“NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Honorable Merlita R. Gaudiel and duly seconded by Honorable Councilor Carreon, the Council
